Penny-Bee Kapilialoha Bovard, University of Hawai'i at Mānoa

Aloha and Welina. It is an honor to have colleague sociologists here at UH Hilo; a place that is home to not only to the reverence and practice of compassion that symbolizes what kapu aloha and aloha 'āina truly are, but is also a place of wonderment and imagination. UH Hilo is rooted in the history and culture of Hawai'i, and dedicated to acts of protest, protection of peoples, places and practices in our present, all the while, working for the best future for all – here in the Islands, across the nation, as well as globally. This conference is a shared effort by so many. Mahalo nui to all who have helped make this event happen, who will be sharing your wisdom and hearts with us, and all who have generously given their time to be here. Mahalo nui loa, Penny-Bee Kapilialoha Bovard, Corey Adler, Mark Willingham, Jr., - HSA Executive Committee 2020.
